Azurmendi***, Eneko Atxa's home in his own words, won three Michelin stars one by one in straight years from 2007 to 2012 and As the Michelin guide granted the third star, Azurmendi*** became the first and only restaurant in Biscay obtaining this distinction, and Eneko Atxa, 35 years old, was one of the youngest chefs in Spain obtaining such recognition.

Azurmendi***:

Azurmendi opened its doors in September 2005 and by that time it held a winery, a restaurant and a huge space for events. Thanks to the evolution of the business and the achievement of two Michellin stars in 2010, it was decided to establish a new gastronomic space in the beginning of 2012. This was the first sustainable restaurant in the Iberian Peninsula that was able to incorporate less invasive working methods with the environment, local and recycled materials and the most advanced technologies in terms of renewable energy available at that time. Eneko Atxa also has been the first chef who has created an experience around gastronomy, a tour through his facilities and seasonal products, recreating history and the origins of his culinary tradition. A restaurant full of emotion, where every place, detail and service, reflects the personality and philosophy of Eneko Atxa, influenced by a territory and a way of understanding and transmitting values.

ENEKO, a growing concept:

In 2016, Eneko Atxa created the culinary concept ENEKO, a growing net of restaurants set in London (2016), Larrabetzu (2017), Tokyo (2017), Bilbao (2018) and Lisbon (2019) to let the world experience Basque cuisine in an authentic and real way. A return to the origin with unique creations offering the diner the basis of Eneko Atxa's cuisine: flavour and technique. Later in 2017, ENEKO Restaurant at Larrabetzu, located beside Azurmendi*** Restaurant, earned its first Michelin star, the same year of the opening. In 2018 ENEKO Bilbao restaurant, located in the Euskalduna Conference Centre of Bilbao, receives its first Michelin star 6 months after its inauguration.
